P R O C L A M A T I O N

History has proven that there are times in national life when crises are imminent and all will agree that there never has been a time when more vital problems confronted the people of all lands than are before us today. Although it is necessary that at all times we acknowledge and recognize the constant need of divine guidance in the fulfillment of our duties and ideals, yet, under these strenuous and exacting conditions, we are prone to forget that inherent in each of us is the desire for the moral and spiritual well-being of the world. No less important than the recovery of economic prosperity is our spiritual recovery through the maintenance of our spiritual ideals, moral standards, and character-building institutions.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leslie Jensen, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday and Sunday, October 2 and 3, 1937, as and urge that our people, regardless of creed, attend church on these days and participate in the special services planned.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 30th day of August, 1937.

Leslie Jensen
Governor
